

Stacy LaFleur Sanders, the master artist of LaFleur Art and Design Studio is a classically trained artist who utilizes a wide variety of media to achieve astounding artistic creations. This Louisianian from the Cajun heartland is a well “seasoned” artist who has an unlimited vision of how art can be applied to everyday lifestyle and business. With a formal, university education in art, interior design, graphic Design and photography, she has a broad sense of what is possible by combining all types of media. Beginning art education as a young child, she now has a lifetime of knowledge and a consistent desire to learn and explore. Stacy LaFleur has an unlimited range of creative possibilities for your next project.

*“One cannot train to be an artist,
One can only train as an artist”*
